LAW FIRM

Susan E. Grosh

Susan is a shareholder of Blakinger Thomas and the Chair of the Family Law and Adoption group. She advises clients in a broad range of family law issues including complex property division, support and custody matters. As a former Special Divorce Master for the Court of Common Pleas of Lancaster County, Susan presided over divorce master hearings and issued master's decisions. She brings to the representation of her clients a unique perspective by combining her experiences as a divorce master with her decades of experience as an attorney to help navigate her clients through extremely difficult and challenging times.
