

BLAKINGER | THOMAS

LAW FIRM

Todd P. Kriner

Todd is an associate at Blakinger Thomas. He is a member of the firm's Civil Litigation and Municipal groups.

Prior to joining Blakinger Thomas, Todd spent 13 years as an Assistant District Attorney with the Lancaster County District Attorney's Office. His trial experience includes child abuse, homicide, and felony drug cases representing the Commonwealth at the Magisterial District Justice Level all the way through U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. The extensive trial experience that Todd possesses provides him a unique perspective on all types of litigation related matters, in addition to allowing him to counsel clients on legal process.

While in law school, Todd worked as a Clerk with the Pennsylvania Supreme Court. Todd's community involvement has included performing outreach with many local High Schools by presenting educational seminars on a variety of topics, as well as, providing police with their mandatory legal updates.
