

Beth A. Ebersole

Beth is an associate with Blakinger Thomas and practices in the firm's Civil & Commercial Litigation, Municipal, and Employment Law groups.

Originally from Lancaster County, Beth served in the United States Air Force and Air National Guard for ten years as a Logistics Readiness Officer. Prior to joining Blakinger Thomas, Beth was selected as a U.S. Department of Transportation Honors Attorney. She later spent several years as a non-profit attorney and outside labor and employment counsel to one of the nation's largest privately-owned corporations.

Beth's current practice focuses on civil litigation with an emphasis on labor and employment law, construction law, commercial disputes, and land use appeals.

Given Beth's breadth of experience, she offers a unique outlook as someone with a range of national and international experience.

EDUCATION

- Tulane Law School, J.D., cum laude (Order of the Barristers, Max Nathan Scholarship Award, CALI Excellence for Future Award)
- Villanova University, B.A., cum laude (Air Force Commander's Leadership Scholarship, Villanova Scholar)

BAR ADMISSIONS

- Pennsylvania, 2017
- Hawaii (Inactive), 2018
- Illinois (Limited Scope), 2021
- U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania, 2020

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

- Society for Human Resource Management (Member)
- Lancaster Society for Human Resource Management (Member)
- Lancaster Bar Association (Vice-Chair, Women in the Profession Committee)
- Pennsylvania Bar Association (Member)

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

- Power Packs Project (Board Member, Secretary)

SEMINARS

- Welcome Aboard: Onboarding in the Wake of the "Great Resignation." Berks County Society for Human Resource

28 Penn Square
Lancaster, PA 17603

Phone: 717-509-7219
Fax: 717-299-9529
BAE@blakingerthomas.com

PRACTICE AREAS
Civil & Commercial Litigation
Municipal
Employment